

Expectations for the Ojibway Recreation Program Arts & Crafts Instructors

Arts & Crafts Head

Along with meeting the expectations for, both, Ojibway Recreation Program Staff, and Ojibway Recreation Program Head Instructors, you will...

- Be skilled, and capable of offering instruction in, basic visual arts media
- Be responsible for planning and delivering the Arts & Crafts programming.
- Complete all major planning prior to the opening of Camp, so that we have adequate time to purchase supplies.
- Communicate supply needs promptly to Activities head/Recreation Head
- Work alongside the 5 Head Counsellors to provide programming that is age appropriate. In order to do this, you must work collaboratively with our Counsellors and embrace new ideas and opportunities for development
- Be flexible and willing to adapt/modify programming as required (e.g., if the Seniors want to have a “Canoe Trip” themed week, you should be able to design a craft that relates to this theme)
- Contribute to the Ojibway Recreation Program’s two plays (e.g., help complete set backdrops, etc.)
- Work to develop new ideas/ways to improve Ojibway’s Arts & Crafts program (e.g., a Recreation Program Art Show, Section Signs each month, etc...)

Arts & Crafts Assistant
